Chief Minister Dr. Sarma Visits Site of Ongoing Riverfront Beautification Process; Orders Timely Completion of Project

Dr. Sarma also Visits and Takes Stock of Infrastructure of Two Schools at Changsari

Dispur, October 25: Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma on Tuesday visited the site of the ongoing riverfront beautification process being undertaken at the bank of river Brahmaputra near Kachari. Taking stock of the progresses of riverfront beautification in and around the old Kamrup Metro Deputy Commissioner's office premises and nearby areas, the Chief Minister directed the concerned authorities to complete the entire process within the stipulated time period. The riverfront beautification project, once completed, is expected to act as a huge boost in attracting domestic and foreign tourists to the city.

The Chief Minister was accompanied by Minister of Housing and Urban Affairs Ashok Singhal, Education Advisor to Government of Assam Noni Gopal Mahanta, Kamrup (Metro) Deputy Commissioner Pallab Gopal Jha and a host of other senior officials.

The Chief Minister today also paid a visit to Changsari Higher Secondary School and Changsari Vidyapeeth in Kamrup district and took stock of the condition of infrastructure such as classrooms, boundary walls, etc. of the two educational institutions. The Chief Minister, instructing the concerned officials to do the needful, stated that there are plans in place to transform one of these two institutions into a model higher secondary school while appropriate steps would be taken to improve the overall educational environment of the other. It is worth mentioning that the current dispensation in the State, under the Chief Ministership of Dr. Sarma, has been tirelessly working towards improving the infrastructure and overall educational environment of the educational institutions of Assam since the very beginning of assuming power.

The Chief Minister, during his Changsari visit, was accompanied by his Cabinet colleague Ashok Singhal, Education Advisor to Government of Assam Noni Gopal Mahanta, Kamrup Deputy Commissioner Keerthi Jalli, along with other senior functionaries of the government.
