Chief Minister Dr. Sarma Expresses Grief at the Demise of Assam Linguistic Minority Development Board Vice-Chairman Sukumar Biswas

Dispur, October 25: Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma has condoled the demise of Sukumar Biswas, Vice-Chairman of Assam Linguistic Minority Development Board, at Guwahati Medical College & Hospital today.

Biswas, who was also one of the State Secretaries of Assam Pradesh Bharatiya Janata Party, was suffering from cancer for the past few years and was undergoing treatment for the same.

The Chief Minister, in a statement, said Biswas will be remembered for his commitments towards the overall uplift of the members of the Bengali community in the State.

Born in Barpeta district, Biswas earned his master's degree from Gauhati University and thereafter, got himself immersed in social services and causes. He had also been the President of the All Assam Bengali Youth & Students Federation at one point of his career as a student leader.
