

JANASANYOG, ASSAM
CHIEF MINISTER'S PUBLIC RELATIONS CELL, DISPUR

PRESS RELEASE

Press Release No. 200/2021

Chief Minister Dr. Sarma participates in a programme organised to pray for Lovlina Borgohain

Dispur, August 3: Lovlina Borgohain the ace boxer who has become the first Assamese to secure a medal in the history of 125 years of Olympic Games, would bout in the seminal final tomorrow to secure her berth for the historic Olympic final. In an attempt to pray for the boxer, a programme was organised in the Nehru Stadium to lit candle which was participated by Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma.

By lighting a candle in front of the statue of Radha Govinda Baruah, Chief Minister Dr. Sarma marked the auspicious inauguration of the programme.

Later talking to the media, Chief Minister Dr. Sarma said that for wishing Lovlina Borgohain for the semi final to be played on Wednesday at 11 am and praying for her, the programme was organised. He also appealed to everybody pray for Lovlina and lit a lamp in the morning for Lovlina.

Sports and Youth Welfare Minister Bimal Bora, Information and Public Relations Minister Pijush Hazarika, Urban Development Minister Ashok Singhal, Revenue and Disaster Management Minister Jogen Mohan and several office bearers of Assam Olympic Association and sports enthusiasts were present on the occasion.

PKB/SD/ August 3, 2021.