CM releases poem book of Partha Sarathi Mahanta

Poems that touch heart, remain popular and relevant: CM

Dispur, August 31: “Those poems that touch heart of the readers, remain relevant and popular for ages. Varied human emotions are reflected in poems and they give flight to imaginations. If poems do not speak of real emotions, they get lost.” Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma today said that while releasing the book of poems authored by litterateur and senior police officer Partha Sarathi Mahanta at the renovated conference hall of CM Office at Janata Bhawan.

Saying that many poets write poems with sincerity but fail to attract the readers due to complex words, the Chief Minister urged the young poets to write in simple language to touch the hearts of common readers. Complex writing styles hamper in communicating a message clearly, he said.

Eminent literatures Dr Dhrubajyoti Bora, Anuradha Sarma Pujari, Anishuz Zaman were present at the programme where artistes Zubeen Garg, Kapil Bora and Jerifa Wahid recited poems of Partha Sarathi Mahanta. Singer Zubleee Barua rendered a devotional song at the beginning of the programme.
