CM Visits Outgoing Chief Secretary Barua at Latter's Office

Dr. Sarma wishes Barua Happy & Healthy Life Ahead

Dispur, August 31: Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma on Wednesday paid a visit to Chief Secretary Jishnu Barua, who will retiring from the Indian Administrative Service on reaching the superannuation age, at the latter's office in Assam Secretariat.

The Chief Minister, accompanied by Education Minister Ranoj Pegu, Chief Secretary-designate Paban Kumar Borthakur and Principal Secretary Samir Kumar Sinha, lauded the outgoing Chief Secretary for the dedicated service he extended to the State and its residents for more than three decades. The Chief Minister also wished Barua a happy and healthy post-retirement life, while expressing confidence the latter will always be available for advises and guidance, whenever the government reached up to him.

It is worth noting that Jishnu Barua, a 1988-batch IAS officer of Assam-Meghalaya cadre, prior to his appointment as the State's Chief Secretary, had worked in various capacities under both the government of Assam and the Central government.
