

Labour Welfare Department and The Hans Foundation Sign MoU for Mobile Medical Units in Assam Tea Gardens

Guwahati, June 11: The Labour Welfare Department and The Hans Foundation have signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to launch the Hans Mobile Medical Unit Project in Assam's tea garden areas. The signing ceremony, held at the Minister's Conference Hall, was attended by Hon'ble Minister for Tea Tribe and Labour Welfare, Sanjay Kishan.

The event began with an introduction to The Hans Foundation's initiatives, particularly in the North East. Sanjay Kishan highlighted the project's importance, stating, "This partnership will bring essential various services directly to tea garden workers, improving their health and overall well-being."

The Hans Mobile Medical Unit Project will deploy medical vans with healthcare professionals to provide regular check-ups, treatments, and preventive care to tea garden workers and their families. This initiative aims to enhance healthcare access and outcomes in the region.
