President Ram Nath Kovind inaugurates photo and archival exhibition on conservation and presentation on Kaziranga Elevated Corridor

President's visit to Kaziranga will help the Kaziranga Model of Conservation and Protection to a new height: CM

Dispur, February 27: President of India Ram Nath Kovind in presence of Chief Minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma today inaugurated a photo and archival exhibition on conservation and presentation of the proposed Kaziranga Elevated Corridor at Kohora in Kaziranga.

It may be noted that the exhibition essentially depicted big five namely the rhino, elephant, tiger, swamp deer and wild buffalo. The exhibition also highlighted different sections like the rich biodiversity of Kaziranga National Park, annual floods, forest protection force and other protection measures, the ecstatic natural beauty of KNP among others. The exhibition also showcased large elephant tusk, large rhino horn, Sambar and Swamp deer antler. Another section of the exhibition displayed the names of forest martyrs who laid down their lives in protection of wild life.

Chief Minister Dr. Sarma, while welcoming the President along with the first lady Savita Kovind, said that he considered it his privilege to accompany the President to inaugurate the exhibition which proudly projected the undiluted beauty of the Kaziranga along with its verdant and unique biodiversity. He also said that the visit of the President to Kaziranga the world heritage site will definitely encourage the park authority along with its forest guards and other fringe workers and NGOs to work more diligently to sustain its conservation works and take them to a greater height.

He also expressed his gratitude to the President for his guidance which will definitely help the government to set new examples for the Kaziranga Model of conservation and protection to be emulated elsewhere.

Environment and Forest Minister Parimal Suklabaidya, Agriculture Minister Atul Bora along with other dignitaries were present also on the occasion.

Later Chief Minister Dr. Sarma and his ministerial colleagues saw the President off at Rowrah airport, Jorhat after the President concluded his three day Assam visit.
