Sonowal mourns death of former Chief Minister Anowara Taimur

Dispur, September 28: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal mourned the death of former Chief Minister Anowara Taimur.

In a statement here today, Chief Minister Sonowal said, “Anowara Taimur the lone Chief Minister of the state was the people’s chief minister who served the people of Assam with compassion”. During her long political career she served the people of Assam as Chief Minister, minister with different portfolios as well as MLA and MP. Her contributions for the state as well as for the welfare of the people will be acknowledged and remembered by the posterity. Her death is a loss to the state.

“I express my condolences to the bereaved family members and I pray to the Almighty for eternal peace of the departed soul”.
