

JANASANYOG, ASSAM
CHIEF MINISTER'S PUBLIC RELATIONS CELL, DISPUR

PRESS RELEASE

Press Release No. 9/2020

Sonowal confers awards to different persons in recognition to their good work
Urges people to stick to hard work, dedication and devotion

Dispur, January 13: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal said that dedication, discipline, devotion and hard work are the tools through which one can reach zenith of success in one's life.

Speaking at 'Oikyotaan', an award giving function organised by News 18, Assam NE to acknowledge the contributions of people of different walks of life at a city hotel here today, Chief Minister Sonowal said that success is a virtue which can't be achieved without certain qualities. He however, said that the qualities like discipline, dedication and hard work make success easier and achievable.

Chief Minister Sonowal also observed, "Man is mortal. However, good actions are always immortal and they have the lingering effect even after one dies". He, therefore, urged upon everybody especially the youths to be known to the society for their noble works. Chief Minister Sonowal also thanked News 18, Assam NE for its endeavour in recognising the contributions of different personalities across different spectra and conferring them awards. Sonowal also said that the act of altruistic endeavour will also inspire other individuals and organizations for carrying out motivational and humanitarian services.

Chief Minister Sonowal today conferred 20 personalities including Vice Chancellor of Assam University Prof. Dilip Chandra Nath, IPS Officer Anand Prakash Tiwari and several other entrepreneurs and business leaders.

SD/ January 13, 2020.

Website: cm.assam.gov.in/assam.mygov.in E-mail: cmprcell09@gmail.com

 /CMOfficeAssam  /cmofficeassam