Chief Minister Extends Greetings for New Year

Dispur, December 31: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal today extended his greetings and best wishes to the people of Assam on the eve of New Year. While expressing his gratitude to the people of Assam for giving his government the opportunity to serve the state for the last four and half years, Chief Minister Sonowal said that due to the continued support and cooperation of the people the present State Government could fulfil the promises it gave while coming to power and hoped that Assam would continue to make great strides towards peace, prosperity and development in the coming year as well.

Referring to challenges like COVID19 that confronted humanity across the world, Sonowal, in a statement, expressed optimism that the coming year would bring happiness and prosperity to all sections of the society and strengthen the bond of unity and brotherhood among the people cutting across divides of cast, creed and religion.
