Sonowal greets people on Christmas

Dispur, December 24: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal wished the people of Assam especially the people belonging to Christianity on the occasion of Christmas.

In a message today, Chief Minister Sonowal said, "Let us all hope that the festivity of Holy Christmas strengthens the bond of universal brotherhood and embrace us all in ambience of spirituality to fortify peace and tranquillity in the state". He also said that the celebrations of Christmas enable the mankind to steer their path in the light of the teachings of Lord Jesus Christ for a harmonious co-existence in the society.
