

JANASANYOG, ASSAM
CHIEF MINISTER'S PUBLIC RELATIONS CELL, DISPUR

PRESS RELEASE

---

Press Release No. 171/2020

Sonowal greets people on Rangali Bihu

Dispur, April: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal greeted the people of Assam on the occasion of Rangali Bihu and Assamese New Year.

In a statement here today, Sonowal said, “My heartfelt greetings to the people of Assam on the occasion of Rangali Bihu and Assamese New Year. Let this occasion enable us to take a pledge to empower us to protect us as well as our near and dear ones from the onslaught of novel corona virus”. In this crossroads, Sonowal also appealed to the people of the Assam, to celebrate Bihu adhering to the protocols of social distancing put in place during the lockdown period to contain and control COVID 19.

Extending his Rangali Bihu wishes, Chief Minister Sonowal urged upon the people to put up a collective resolve to fight against the virus. He, therefore, requested the people to be determined, committed and disciplined to dispel the black clouds to give brightness a rousing ovation to take the people through this testing times.

SD/ PD/BB/ April 12, 2020.