Sonowal inaugurates Tengakhat police station under MOITRI

Reiterates govt's commitment to make Assam one the of five top performing states

Sonowal inaugurates playground and pavilion of Tengakhat HS School under CMSGUY

Dispur, January 15: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal said that peace and harmony have been the hallmark of the present BJP led State government as the government has plunged itself in transforming Assam into one of the five top performing States of the country using the harmonious coexistence of all sections of the people of the state.

Speaking at the inaugural function of Tengakhat Police Station which has been built under MOITRI scheme at a function held at Tengakhat in Dibrugarh district today, Chief Minister Sonowal said that the BJP led state government has been able to strengthen peace and harmony in the state. He also said that as against the regime of the Congress government where group and ethnic clashes had taken the toll of the state, the present BJP led State government has been successful in strengthening peace, tranquillity and harmonious coexistence among all sections of the people of the state. He also said that under the present BJP government no clash in the name of caste, creed and ethnicity has been reported from any part, as all sections of the people are coordinating with the efforts of the government in making the state progressive and prosperous. Attributing the present improved law and order condition in the state to the professionalism and dedication of Assam Police, Chief Minister Sonowal said that with the help of the sound law and order condition prevailing in the state and the existing peace and harmony and all the developmental schemes, State government is in the process of transforming Assam into one of the five most developed states of the country.

Expressing his gratitude to Prime Minister of the country Narendra Modi, Sonowal said that it is because of the leadership of the Prime Minister, initiatives were taken to upgrade the police stations of the state under MOITRI scheme. It is because of this scheme, police stations have been upgraded, police forces have been modernized and protection of lives and properties of the people of the state have been made possible in a more professional way than ever before. He also said that it is because of the diligence and dedication of the state police, dignity of women has been ensured, crime against weaker and marginalized sections have been curtailed, poaching of the famous one horned rhinoceros has been stopped and overall law & order situation has improved. Chief Minister also said that technological intervention is another corner stone of the MOITRI
