Sonowal pays homage to the martyrs at Shradhdhanjali Kanan on the occasion of Republic Day

Urges everybody to take a pledge to realise dreams of aspirant India

Dispur, January 26: On the occasion of the 72nd Republic Day, Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal paid rich floral tributes in the reminiscence of the valour and sacrifice of the martyrs who fought hard for the cause of independence.

Paying his rich tributes to the martyrs' column at Shradhdhanjali Kanan here today Chief Minister Sonowal said, "On the occasion of the 72nd Republic Day celebrations, everybody in the nation need to take a pledge to work harder to expedite development of the country. By working hard and by ensuring welfare of all sections of the people, we can fulfil the dreams of the freedom fighters as well as martyrs of our freedom struggle". In sync with the spirit of Prime Minister Naredra Modi's call for Ek Bharat Shrestha Bharat, Chief Minister Sonowal also called upon everybody to lend their hands towards making the country strong and great. Chief Minister Sonowal said that his government in the state has been working for the equal development of all areas of the state belonging to Barak, Brahmaputra, hills and plains. He also said that making Assam stronger from all aspects by making peace, progress and prosperity visible in all areas of the state have been the core agenda of his government. He, therefore, requested everybody on the occasion of the Republic Day to take a vow to realise the dreams of an aspirant India which is strong and emulative on all fronts. MLA Lahowal Rituporna Baruah along with other dignitaries were present on the occasion.
