CM visits Batiamari erosion hit area and Anganwadi Centre at Behali

CM inspects under construction Ghahigaon stadium

Dispur, September 29: On the first day of his three-day tour to northern and upper Assam, Chief Minister Dr Himanta Biswa Sarma today visited the erosion hit areas of Batiamari in Behali of Biswanath district, which was caused by the Brahmaputra river and made a thorough inspection of the site.

Considering the severity of erosion and families displaced by it, the Chief Minister asked the Additional Chief Secretary Water Resources Syedain Abbasi to take durable schemes using geo-bag sloping to give permanent succour to the flood and erosion hit people. Further, responding to the request of local people, the Chief Minister said that a high school would be set up at Batiamari and the Monabari road would be reconstructed and named after Swahid Kanaklata Baruah.

Dr. Sarma also visited the under construction Ghahigaon stadium at Gohpur and inspected different aspects of the construction works of the stadium. Taking stock of the civil works, he asked the concerned authority to complete the construction of the stadium by March next year for the benefit of the sports persons.

During his day long visit, Chief Minister Sarma also inspected an Anganwadi Centre of Borkothiabari ICDS project at Behali and spent some time with the children. Dr. Sarma interacted with the children and distributed the take home ration (THR) to 96 children of the area. Further thanking the Anganwadi workers for their dedicated services, the Chief Minister urged them to continue their committed works for better upbringing of the children.

MP Pallab Lochan Das, MLAs Ranjit Dutta, Promud Borthakur and Utpal Bora accompanied the Chief Minister during his visit.
