Sonowal attends Annual Day Function of Chinmaya Mission Guwahati

For welfare of society one needs to work with dedication: CM

Dispur, December 29: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal today attended the annual day function of Chinmaya Mission Guwahati and observed that for the welfare of the society people will have to work with dedication.

Speaking on the occasion, Chief Minister Sonowal said that for a qualitative life, one needs to spend his or her time in spiritual pursuits. Lauding the role of Chinmaya Mission, Sonowal said that it (Chinmaya Mission) is not only working in India, it has spread its wings all over the world and is helping people to get over their undesirable habits through spiritual moorings. He said that the creator has bestowed mankind with lot of potentials. It is the duty of human-beings to discover the immense potentials by empowering themselves spiritually. Emphasizing that people should go forward by inculcating human virtues in them, Sonowal said Assam has drafted its forward march by strengthening the tenets of harmony and brotherhood. Chief Minister Sonowal assured that State government would consider it positively to allot land to Chinmaya Mission Guwahati for setting up its educational institution.

President of Chinmaya Mission Guwahati Amit Jain gave the welcome address in the programme which was also addressed by the in-charge of Chinmaya Mission, Chennai Swami Mitranandajee. The programme was also graced by the spiritual gurus of Chinmaya Mission, Guwahati along with host of other dignitaries.
