

Pragya Assam Quiz held at Kalakshetra

GUWAHATI, NOV 30: Pragya Assam, a state level quiz competition was organised by MyGov Assam in association with Directorate of Cultural Affairs at Banikanta Kakati Auditorium in Srimanta Sankardev Kalakshetra in Guwahati on November 30, 2019.

The prize money quiz was held as part of the Asom Divas to be celebrated throughout the state on December 2 in remembrance of the first Ahom king Chaolung Sukapha, who played a vital role in unifying the various indigenous ethnic groups of Assam.

Conducted by Quiz Master Dhiraj Kumar Sarma, the competition for higher secondary to post graduate level students saw participation from various educational institutions across the State.

While Rubul Kalita (Gauhati University) and Bhupal Sarma (Nalbari College) clinched the first position, the second spot was bagged by Ankurjyoti Sarma and Raktim Ranjan Baishya (both Cotton University), followed by Madhurya Goswami and Tridib Bhagawati (both Cotton University) who won the third prize. The first three winners took home Rs 10000, Rs 7000 and Rs 5000 respectively.

The winners also received appreciation certificates signed by the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Assam Shri Sarbananda Sonowal and a bundle of books.

Encouraging the spirit of the student participants, Chief Guest Shri Junu Das, Deputy Secretary, Department of Cultural Affairs, appreciated the students' performance as well as the and high standard and smooth conduct of the quiz by MyGov Assam.

The awards were distributed by the chief guest and the quiz master.
