No.147/2020

CM urges Tablighi Jamaat attendees from Assam to voluntarily come forward

Dispur, April 1: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal today called on the people who took part in Tablighi Jamaat congregation at Markaz Nizamuddin at New Delhi from Assam to voluntarily come forward and identify themselves before the concerned authorities to safeguard the interest of their own families and other citizens of the State. He urged them to go through necessary tests and screenings by Health Department to determine COVID-19 infection. The Chief Minister also appealed to the people to provide any information to authorities about those who attended the Tablighi Jamaat congregation.
