Sonowal stops his carcade and talks to on duty police personnel on road

Thanks doctors' fraternity on the occasion of Doctors' Day

Dispur, July 1: In a bid to lift the morale of the police personnel engaged in traffic and law and order duty amid Covid 19 induced lockdown in Guwahati, Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal this evening stopped his carcade and talked to the on duty police personnel at Zoo Road tri-junction in the city.

While talking to the personnel, Sonowal expressed his gratitude and hailed the personnel for their sense of duty. He also lauded them for discharging their duties diligently even in the times of extra-ordinary health situation in the state. He thanked all rank and file of the police personnel and took note of their duty which is primarily responsible for instilling sense of security among the people in general.

Later talking to the reporters, Sonowal thanking the police personnel, urged upon everybody to adhere to all lockdown protocols to beat the spread of novel corona virus. He also said that though the people of Guwahati showing their resolve to stop the spread of positive cases, responded well and remained themselves in their home, the same sense of commitment should be continued throughout the lockdown period. He also appealed to the people to comply with the guide lines prescribed by the Health and Family Welfare Department against Covid 19.

On the occasion of Doctors' Day today, Chief Minister Sonowal also extended his heartfelt greetings to the doctors' fraternity. He also expressed his gratitude to the doctors' community for the being the front line warriors in the fight against novel corona virus. Sonowal also had his share of gratitude for the NDRF, SDRF personnel and other frontline workers who have been lending their hands to reach out to the people in 28 districts of the state which are experiencing the second wave of flood currently in the state. He thanked them for reaching out to the affected people and giving them relief and respite.
