

JANASANYOG, ASSAM
CHIEF MINISTER'S PUBLIC RELATIONS CELL, DISPUR

PRESS RELEASE

No. 119/2020

CM releases GL Agarwalla's autobiography

Dispur, March 14: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal released the autobiography of noted social worker and founder of Amar Asom GL Agarwalla titled 'Ritur Pora Rituloi' on his first death anniversary today.

While releasing the book in a low-key programme at the latter's residence in Guwahati today, Chief Minister Sonowal paid deep tribute to Agarwalla. Chief Minister Sonowal said that late Agarwalla was committed to the cause of the society and contributed immensely for strengthen the greater Assamese identity.

Underlining Agarwalla's association with Asom Sahitya Sabha, Chief Minister Sonowal observed that society as a whole must remember his contributions and work for reflecting his nature of hard work, dedication and social responsibility in their life as well. Sonowal further said that the book would throw deep insight into the life of Agarwalla and help others to know about his successful journey in life and challenges he faced in strengthening the greater Assamese society.

Chief Minister's Legal Advisor Santanu Bharali, CMD of GL Publications Sameer Agarwalla and other members of the Agarwalla family, editor of Amar Asom Prashanta Rajguru and several others were present at the book release programme.

BG/March 14, 2020