Gauhati High Court rejects petitions of accused in APSC's cash for job scam

Dispur, March 18: The Gauhati High Court today quashed the appeals of the 49 appellants, accused in the Assam Public Service Commission's (APSC) cash for job scam. It may be noted that the appellants after being dismissed from their jobs by the government, demanded their reinstatement. Challenging government's decision, they filed an appeal to the Gauhati High Court and after two months of hearing, the court of Justice Manjit Bhuyan today quashed their appeal.
