CM telephones CRPF jawans of the state and enquires about their wellbeing

Dispur, April 29: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal today telephoned 5 CRPF jawans of Assam who are being quarantined in government quarantine centre in Mandoli, New Delhi and enquired about their wellbeing. He wished them good health and told them to remain positive in the face of challenge posed by COVID-19.

The CRPF jawans the Chief Minister talked to were Ankur Nath, Debojit Barua, Tankeswar Bora, Prafulla Chandra Das and Mukut Kalita.

Through a press release, the Chief Minister also expressed grief on the demise of CRPF soldier Mohammad Ikram Hussain on Tuesday due to COVID-19 infection. He said that Hussain, who hailed from Barpeta in Assam, fought valiantly against deadly coronavirus and his sacrifice while performing his duty would keep inspiring the people of the state and country with a sense of patriotism. He extended his deepest condolences to the bereaved family and wished for the eternal peace of the departed soul.
