Sonowal greets people on Eid-Uz-Zuha

Dispur, July 31: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal greeted the people of Assam belonging to 'Islam' on the occasion of Eid-Uz-Zuha.

In a statement here, Chief Minister Sonowal said, "Eid-Uz-Zuha is a holy festival celebrated by the Muslims across the world. This is a festival which teaches us the tenets of sacrifice and compassion. It is also an occasion that gives us an opportunity to win over narrow feelings like hatred, greed and enmity. It is also an occasion to celebrate the bond of universal brotherhood".

As the world at this moment is going an extraordinary situation, on this occasion, Sonowal called upon the people to pray to the Almighty for the wellbeing of humanity. He also urged everybody to celebrate the festival adhering to COVID 19 protocols and aid this festival to contribute to the fight against the pandemic.
