

JANASANYOG, ASSAM
CHIEF MINISTER'S PUBLIC RELATIONS CELL, DISPUR

PRESS RELEASE

No. 615/2020

CM condoles demise of eminent arts scholar Kapila Vatsyayan

Dispur, Sept 16: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal today condoled the demise of eminent scholar and author of art and dance and recipient of Padma Vibhushan and Sankardev Award Kapila Vatsyayan.

Expressing his grief in a statement, Chief Minister Sonowal said that the immense contribution made by Vatsyayan to the field of research in Indian classical dance forms, architecture and arts would always remain a milestone which promoted the growth of quality research in those fields. Apart from being a scholar, she also advised several governments on education and culture and held several posts in the Government of India while playing a key role in establishing institutes such as Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts as its founding director.

Terming the demise of the noted scholar of art history, architecture and Indian classical dance as an irreparable loss to the nation, Chief Minister Sonowal prayed for the eternal peace of the departed soul and expressed solidarity with the bereaved family.

Swakkhyar/16.9.2020

