CM releases video album of poetry recitation

Dispur, September 26: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal released a video album of poetry recitation titled "Mur Parichay" in a programme held at Assam Administrative Staff College in Guwahati today. The poems written by senior police officer Partha Sarathi Mahanta highlight the dedicated service rendered by police personnel and the hardships and challenges they face while performing duty along with their role during COVID-19 pandemic. The poems were recited by popular actors of Assamese cinema Kapil Bora and Zerifa Wahid.

Chief Minister Sonowal while speaking on the occasion said that the video album of Partha Sarathi Mahanta's poetry would inspire and motivate the police personnel. The Chief Minister said that after assuming office, he interacted with the police personnel and also asked the DGP to regularly talk to them to boost their morale and to have an understanding about the challenges they face in line of duty. He also said that Assam Police by following the team Assam spirit has been able to win people's trust and confidence and earned a distinct name for itself in the country. The Chief Minister also lauded Partha Sarathi Mahanta for his creative work.

Chief Minister's Media Advisor Hrishikesh Goswami in his speech said that every individual has a creative persona and Partha Sarathi Mahanta's creative works reflect that. He also said that creative activities help people to maintain positive mindset to perform duties successfully.

Chief Secretary Kumar Sanjay Krishna, DGP Bhaskarjyoti Mahanta and ADGP (Law & Order) GP Singh also spoke on the occasion which was attended by several senior police officers among others.
