Sonowal inaugurates newly constructed building of Nalbari Police Station

CM calls upon police to become more responsive to earn the trust and confidence of the people

Dispur, August 02: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal said that Assam Police has earned a distinct position in policing in the entire country by virtue of its devotion, dedication, discipline and dutifulness. He therefore congratulated every personnel in Assam Police and urged them to continue their relentless endeavour for the safety and security of every residence in the State.

Inaugurating the newly constructed building of Nalbari Police Station under MOITRI Scheme at Nalbari today, Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal said that considering the demography of the State, Government is exploring all options to recruit more people in Assam Police so that lives and properties of the people of Assam can be safeguarded on a priority basis. Chief Minister Sonowal also said that Assam Police is always synonymous to the maintenance of law and order, protection of lives and properties of the people and they are relentlessly doing their duties to earn trust and confidence of all and sundry. He also said that when the State is waging a war against COVID-19 pandemic, Assam Police personnel are also working like frontline warriors and in the process many of them tested COVID positive.

He hailed the recovered Assam Police personnel for donating Plasma, which immensely helped the state in treating the COVID positive patients. Congratulating the Assam Police personnel of Nalbari district on getting a new police station building under MOTRI scheme, Chief Minister Sonowal urged them to become more responsive towards dealing with the people who come to police station during any problem. He also asked them to become more friendly so that people do not become hesitant in coming to the police station. He also said that Nalbari Police station which was established in the year 1957 has a long history and he called upon the police personnel to work more professionally under the changed dynamics of crimes so that Nalbari Police station can sustain its rich legacy.

Industry and Commerce Minister Chandra Mohan Patowary, MP Mangaldoi Dilip Saikia, MLA Nalbari Ashok Sarma, MLA Barkhetri Narayan Deka, Chairman Assam Tourism Development Corporation Jayanta Malla Baruah, DGP Bhaskarjyoti Mahanta also spoke on the occasion.

Managing Director of Assam Police Housing Corporation Arabinda Kalita, DC Nalbari Purabi Konwar, SP Nalbari Amanjeet Kaur, social worker Umesh Chandra Chakraborty and host of others were present on the occasion.
