

JANASANYOG, ASSAM
CHIEF MINISTER'S PUBLIC RELATIONS CELL, DISPUR

PRESS RELEASE

No. 20/2020

Sonowal hails progressive farmers for promoting organic farming

Dispur, January 22:Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal hailed the efforts of progressive farmers of Sonapur Revenue circle for promoting organic farming in the area by dint of their sheer devotion and diligence.

Haricharan Das, Niran ChandraDas and Phanidhar Pathak, the three progressive farmers met Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal here today and narrated their success stories in the field of organic farming. Sonowal lauded the efforts of the farmers in promoting organic farming in Sonapur area. The Chief Minister while stating Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of transforming North East into an organic hub of the country, said the efforts of the farmers in practising organic farming will be a source of inspiration to others.

The farmers who hail from Hahara village, Bogibari village and Dhopguri village of Sonapur Revenue Circle brought with them some organic vegetables for the Chief Minister. Sonowal thanked the farmers and paid them for the organic produce. He also requested them to continue their good work in the field of organic farming to motivate others to follow suit. MP Pradan Baruah, former Speaker of Assam Legislative Assembly Ranjeet Dass were also present during the interaction.

SD/ January 22, 2020.