Sonowal presents Anandaram Dhekial Phukan Award 2020 to Bishnu Khargoria

Dispur, February 14: Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal today presented Anandaram Dhekial Phukan Award 2020, conferred by Anandaram Dheikial College to eminent actor Bishnu Khargoria at a function held at Nagaon.

Speaking on the occasion held at the premises of the college, Chief Minister Sonowal said that it is really a matter of pride and prestige to honour an eminent personality by an award instituted after the name of a great personality. He also said that Anandaram Dhekial Phukan who was a litterateur and linguist of repute called upon everybody to concentrate on agriculture and commerce. He, said that in order to put that appeal into practice, everybody should go forward adopting modern outlook of science and technology. Chief Minister Sonowal at the same time hailed the role of Anandaram Dhekial Phukan College for creating rich human resources in the state for years together.

Sonowal also said that the because of the unparallel love and attention of Prime Minister Narendra Modi for Assam and North East, the region is experiencing unprecedented development.

The recipient of the award Bishnu Khargoria also expressed his feeling on the occasion.

Principal, Anandaram Dhekial Phukan Dr. Surjit Kumar Bhagawati gave the welcome address of the programme which was also addressed by MLA Nagaon Rupak Sharma. Chairman ATDC Jayanta Malla Baruah, former Union Minister Rajen Gohain, DC Kavitha Padmanabhan, SP Gurav Abhijit Dilip and host of other dignitaries were present on the occasion.
