

'SOK DIVAS' observed at Janata Bhawan

Dispur, August 16: 'Sok Divas' was observed in the premises of Janata Bhawan today to mourn the tragic death of the innocent children and other persons killed in a bomb blast while attending the Independence Day celebration at Dhemaji in the year 2004. The oath was administered by Paban Kumar Borthakur, Additional Chief Secretary to Government of Assam in presence of M.S Manivannan, Commissioner-Secretary to Government of Assam and other senior officers of Janata Bhawan. This day is observed every year to uplift the tolerant and non-violent nature of our country.

Along with other government departments, the tragic day was also observed at the Directorate of Information and Public Relations, Assam, Dispur. Anupam Choudhury, DIPR, Assam administered the oath of tolerance and non violence in presence of the officers and staff of the Directorate.
