A delegation of women from Naharkatia praises govt step to waive MFI loans

Women delegation hands over 2000 gamosa to CM as token of gratitude

Dispur, July 6: A delegation of 2000 women of Naharkatia LAC visited Chief Minister Dr. Himanta Biswa Sarma at the latter's office at Janata Bhawan today and handed over 2000 handmade gamosa as a token of love & gratitude for the measures state government has announced to give relief to genuine women borrowers who took loan from micro finance institutions. The delegation also presented him a letter of appreciation.

Chief Minister Sarma while humbly accepting the gift from the women said that the government true to its promised has given due importance to the matter since coming to power. He expressed the view that the state government's move would provide much needed relief to the poor borrowers.

MLA of Naharkatia LAC Taranga Gogoi was also present during the visit of the delegation.
